Director General

The FNEC is looking for a director general to disseminate and achieve the shared vision set out by FNEC-member communities, as well as the resulting mission. The incumbent provides leadership in the management of the organization's resources to ensure its operations run efficiently and its mandate is fulfilled. The director meets this challenge by establishing appropriate governance and management structures, policies and processes.

HIRING PRIORITY: By virtue of the FNEC's hiring policy, this position is reserved for:

- 1- First Nations members from FNEC-member communities
- 2- Members of other First Nations

WORKING CONDITIONS: Work is conducted during normal office hours from Monday to Friday; however, travelling for periods which may exceed 48 hours, twice a month, on average, or more, to various locations is an essential part of the job. The FNEC is offering a competitive salary and employee benefits.

QUALIFICATIONS AND EXPERIENCE: The applicant must hold a master's degree in administration, education or a related field, and have at least ten years of related experience in a managerial position.

START DATE: Autumn 2018

All applications will be analyzed on reception. Only selected candidates will be contacted.
